Your order

The terms and conditions applicable to your order can be found at www.burberry.com/legal-cookies/terms-conditions/.

Your right to cancel

Under consumer protection laws in certain countries, you may have the right to cancel orders for certain items within a cooling-off period. For orders on Burberry.com, this cooling-off period is 14 days commencing from the day after the date on which you receive your product. This does not affect your other legal rights as a consumer, or your rights under our returns policy. Please see our Returns and Cancellation policy for further details.

To cancel your order within the cooling-off period, please provide Burberry with written notice by registered post to:

Burberry Limited
Horseferry House
Horseferry Road
London
SW1P 2AW
UK
Company Number 00162636

Or by email to: customerservice@burberry.com.

If you exercise your right of cancellation after the product has been shipped, please replace the product securely in its original packaging and return it to us with your shipping note.

Customs

Shipments to certain countries are subject to strict controls by local customs authorities and, as a result, delays may occur for reasons outside of our control. Please note you may be contacted by our courier and/or customs clearance broker to provide certain information and authorisation for them to act on your behalf to import your order. If you do not provide authorisation when contacted, you may become responsible for the import and any import duties or other fees charged.
